2. Preliminary Budget Presentations – Drew McMechan, Assistant Superintendent of Financial Services presented Wayne RESA's 2025-26 preliminary budgets which included the budget timeline and assumptions, and overviews of the General Fund, Enhancement Fund, Act 18 Fund, and Cooperative Fund. An overview of other funds was also provided to the Board including Special Education, Medicaid, Funded Projects and Capital Projects.

J. Superintendent's Report

Senior Executive Director of Legislative Affairs, Mike Latvis

Mr. Latvis shared the following updates:

- From a federal perspective, hot topics include the budget and reconciliation process as well as the continued flow of executive orders and different things that are coming out of the U.S. Department of Education.
  - As far as reconciliation and budget cuts at the federal level, there are concerns about whether or not there will be cuts to Medicaid. Over the last three years there has been approximately $20 million in reimbursements.
  - There are continued concerns about Title I cuts and cuts to school nutrition programs. If there was a 25% cut to Title I and school nutrition program funding that is received from the federal government, that would be an approximate $325 million cut to the state.
- On April 3, 2025, the U.S. Department of Education informed state and local education agencies that they must sign a document accepting the Trump administration's interpretation of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 or they would be at risk of losing federal education funds. MDE reviewed the document along with the state attorney general's office and sent a memo out on Friday, April 11, 2025 as well as a letter of response to the U.S. Department of Education. We are currently in a holding pattern as it relates to this and continue to advise Wayne County districts to always seek legal guidance.
- On the state level, the budget is always the main concern this time of year. The Senate should be coming up with their budget the week of April 21 and the House is going to wait until after the revenue estimating conference on May 16.

Deputy Superintendent of Educational Services, Beth Gonzalez

Ms. Gonzalez shared the following updates:

- A QR code was given to board members that linked to a site that was created in support of the innovative project with the multilingual and instructional technology teams in partnership with Van Buren Public Schools project that was previously shared with the Board. The team had the opportunity to present during the ASU/GSV Education Innovative Showcase. Out of over 2,000 submissions, RESA were selected as one of 10 in the country.
- The 2025-26 Wayne RESA Course Catalog is in the final stages. The professional learning catalog will be shared with constituent districts in late April to assist with their budgetary plans for professional learning.

Deputy Superintendent of Administrative Services, Kelly Bohl

Ms. Bohl shared the following update:

- The Orange Frog Happiness Advantage officially launched on April 15, 2025. RESA appreciates this happiness movement and the ability to bring it to the organization.

Assistant Superintendent of Financial Services, Drew McMechan

Mr. McMechan provided the following responses based on questions from the Board regarding the preliminary budget presentation:

- The flowthrough allocation for IDEA is $64 million and 14% of that gets allocated to the center programs which is approximately $9 million.
- The Food Services category on the Proposed General Fund Budget is for the Food Service Consortium that provides consulting services and support through the Michigan Association of Counties (MAC).

- RESA works with financial advisors PFM (Public Financial Management) and invests in the highest grade of investments available for the least amount of risk and the most secure investments possible. RESA is conservative in our investments and by law, are restricted in what we can invest in.

Superintendent Dr. Daveda Colbert

Dr. Daveda Colbert shared:

- April kicks off Spring assessments. RESA wishes all Wayne County students well as they demonstrate growth and proficiency. We also wish our Wayne County educators well during this testing period.
- RESA acknowledges and recognizes that State Superintendent, Dr. Michael Rice, has announced his retirement. We thank him for his service and for being a champion for equity and excellence in all things education.
- During the month of April, RESA also honors and uplifts:
  - Autism Acceptance Month, as we celebrate the experiences and identities of the Autistic community and individuals, emphasizing understanding, inclusion, and support to move beyond awareness and into meaningful acceptance of all people and learners. This was displayed during the amazing April board presentation on Unified Sports by both the Livonia and Northville School Districts.
  - Week of the Young Child (April 5-11), when we recognize the work of our Early Childhood team and the many departments who promote a safe, accessible, and engaging learning environment for our youngest students. We celebrate our enrollment growth in the Great Start Readiness Program and leading the state's vision of PreK for All! We must continue to promote early childhood education.
  - National Administrative Professionals Day (April 23) and Administrative Professionals Week (April 21-25), when we acknowledge and celebrate our administrative assistants who keep RESA moving in the right direction.
  - Arab American Heritage Month, as we celebrate the rich culture and history as significant contributions of the Arab American community.
- Dr. Colbert had the opportunity to speak at the NAACP Detroit Branch's Third Annual Education Symposium. Thank you to RESA Board Vice President Mary Blackman who was in attendance. Also, thanks to both Mike Lavis and Beth Gonzalez for their contributions to an amazing slide deck and to Andrell Williams for his onsite technology support. The topic that Dr. Colbert was asked to speak to was "The Educational Systems Response to Public Education." Other speakers included Dr. Nikolai Vitti, Detroit Public Schools Community District Superintendent and Shirley Stancato from the Wayne State Board of Governors.
  - The community wants to hear more about the impact of Executive Orders on public education, and they are calling on RESA to speak in a variety of settings.
- Thursday, April 17 is the Wayne County Parent Advisory Committee's (PAC) recognition of amazing staff that continue to pour in to and support individuals with education plans. This event is always a highlight for the month of April because it is a shout out to the great work of amazing teachers, paraeducators, administrators, transportation and food service specialists, and others throughout Wayne County.
- Thursday, April 24 is the Michigan Association of School Boards (MASB) Awards celebration where the Redford Union School District will serve as the host. RESA board members and leadership will be in attendance to celebrate the outstanding boards of education in Wayne County and all their awards.

- Congratulations to each of our Wayne County elected members of the local boards and their accomplishments, as well as the RESA Board of Education and Board Secretary Danielle Funderberg for her presidential award of recognition.
- Saturday, April 26, the Excellence in Transportation awards dinner will take place in Southgate. This event recognizes transportation specialists including Kelli Schultz, RESA Transportation Consultant, and her phenomenal wisdom, vision, and stellar leadership and the team that continues to support Wayne County transportation specialists which includes bus drivers, aides, mechanics, dispatch, and more.
  - We are encouraged by and appreciate that Wayne County students are being transported to and from school, including all activities, safely by our outstanding transportation specialists.
- The Orange Frog | Happiness Advantage training for the RESA organization has started. This training is about positive psychology. Thus far, attendees are walking away from the training with the mindset of paying gratitude forward, saying thank you and bringing joy to the workplace. RESA looks forward to the entire organization being trained and the impact that the training has on its' culture. We recognize that culture is everything. The joy bomb experienced today is just one way of encouraging and maintaining a thriving work environment.
- The RESA master facilities plan is in motion. Communications outlining the facility upgrades, anticipated construction, and greater investment to advance the RESA mission are being shared widely.
  - The project was derived from years of data on renting venues, environmental studies, constituent requests to use the property, feedback over the years about not having adequate space for internal meetings/trainings, and the aesthetics and safety of the grounds/property, as well as being one of the only Intermediate School Districts who did not serve students directly, and more.
  - Through a combination of a $10 million one-time state appropriation and strategic investments from Wayne RESA's General Fund, we are making purposeful updates to our properties and infrastructure that align with our mission and vision for the future and in response to more than a decade of feedback. Together, these improvements will improve the way we collaborate and lead to furthering our mission.
  - Burger Baylor Campus Conversion
    - The Wayne RESA Office and Conference Space at the Burger Baylor Campus in Inkster will be converted into a four-classroom Great Start Readiness Program (GSRP) PreK school, tentatively opening in Fall 2026. This site will serve as a model PreK program, include one-way observation spaces, and support our Teacher Apprentice program, Talent Together. This change is driven by data identifying this zip code as an underserved area for early childhood education in our county and in service of meeting our PreK for All expansion goals. This will offer Wayne RESA the opportunity to directly serve students, and we are excited!
  - Special Education and Early Intervention Services (SEEIS) Department Relocation
    - At our newly purchased Wayne RESA Annex, the office space previously occupied by The Senior Alliance will become the new home for our Special Education and Early Intervention Services Department. This will allow us to bring the full team under one roof to improve collaboration and the way we work together in service of our communities. Our Assistive Technology team, student-specific items, and Make-and-Take space will also be relocated to the Annex. This also offers an opportunity for more intentional collaboration and proximity between Instructional Technology and Assistive Technology teams. Work on this project is already underway. This will also make additional space available at the Education Center, allowing other teams to move into offices and bring teams together.

- Annex Renovation and Meeting Rooms
  - Also at the Annex, we will renovate current meeting spaces, Annex Rooms 1, 2, and 3, and add new ones, anticipated to be Room 4, 5, and 6. The updated space will flexibly accommodate up to six meeting rooms, or one large space when the moveable walls are opened, with capacity for approximately 396 people (configuration dependent). This will allow Wayne RESA to hold an in-person All Staff Meeting on our own campus. This will also support our colleagues hosting expanded professional learning, conferences, and community events within our own space.
- Annex Auditorium Conversion
  - The final phase of these projects will focus on remodeling the auditorium at the Annex. This auditorium will be converted into a flat meeting space for professional learning, with capacity for up to 150 people.
- The recertification for CPR, AED and First Aid Training continues for RESA staff. The entire organization was previously trained and now the recertification process is taking place where individuals can remain certified. This is an example of one of the things RESA continues to do to have a healthy and safe environment inside the organization.
- In closing, the April board meeting presentation on Unified Sports was amazing.
  - Thanks to Dr. Jennifer Taiariol, Assistant Superintendent of Special Education and Early Intervention Services, who also presented at the state board meeting on Tuesday, April 8 along with one of our constituent districts.
  - What was lifted by Livonia and Northville was self-acceptance, diversity, tolerance and inclusion.
    - Like Livonia and Northville, we need to continue to work together to ensure that Wayne County is inclusive of each of our students and supportive of all of them thriving.
